PAUSE FOR REFLECTION

Anne Lamott

Prayer connects us umbilically to a spirit both outside and within us, who hears and answers.

*CALL TO WORSHIP Chuck Fromm and Jeremy Armstrong

Lord, teach us to pray.

So we might awaken to the wonder of your presence

So we might feel gratitude for your gift of life today

So we might discover your kingdom as revealed in our sisters and brothers So we might find safety beneath the shelter of your wings So we might declare your glory as we gather together:

Lord, teach us to pray

So the lonely and hopeless find comfort in your abundant presence

So those in war and famine find the everlasting peace of your Spirit So we are not indifferent to the suffering of the world around us So our songs help to make us look more like you

GREEK TESTAMENT READING Luke 11:1-13

He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples." So he said to them, "When you pray, say:

Mother/Father, God, may your name be revered as holy. May your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial."

And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.' And he answers from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.' I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything out of friendship, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

"So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asked for a fish, would give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asked for an egg, would give a scorpion? If you, then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

THEME READING

Henri Nouwen

Praying is no easy matter. It demands a relationship in which you allow someone other than yourself to enter into the very center of your person, to see there what you would rather leave in the darkness, and to touch there what you would rather leave untouched.

SERMON

Not Me Rev. Scott Dalgarno HYMN OF RESPONSE

Take My Life and Let it Be #697 all verses

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

O God of sky and God of Earth, We honor your presence Within us and beyond. As we eat may we share your gifts Of hope and compassion With all the life of Earth.

Give us, O God, forgiving hearts Affirming each other With humor and with grace. May we grow beyond narrow needs To join in the spreading Of just and loving peace.

You greet us here and everywhere, In moments of oneness And spaces of delight. To all this we now say "Amen"

OFFERTORY

Prelude Op. 28 #21 Chopin

Through all our living, we our fruits must give. Good works of service are for offering. When we are giving, or when receiving, We belong to God. We belong to God. We belong to God.
