PAUSE FOR REFLECTION

John Green

Last words are always harder to remember when no one knows that someone's about to die.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Come, let us delight in the mysteries of creation.

Our joy is found in the love of God and neighbor.

Come, let us be nourished by the feast of the people of God.

Together, let us worship the One who invites us to commune;

The one who enables us to thrive

HEBREW TESTAMENT READING

Psalms 137:1-6

By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept
when we remembered Zion.

There on the poplars we hung our harps,
for there our captors asked us for songs,
our tormentors demanded songs of joy;
they said, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

How can we sing the songs of the Lord
while in a foreign land?

If I forget you, Jerusalem, may my right hand forget its skill.

May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you, if I do not consider Jerusalem my highest joy.

THEME READING

John Green

The book [of lost ones] was turned to the page with Anne Frank's name, but what got me about it was the fact that right beneath her name there were four Aron Franks. FOUR. Four Aron Franks without museums, without historical markers, without anyone to mourn them. I silently resolved to remember and pray for the four Aron Franks as long as I was around.

SERVICE OF COMMUNION

-Invitation to the Table

-Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

Blessed are you, God of time and space.

Heaven is here and earth, too,

and the space between them, thin.

Here are those bound by time

and those blessed by eternity,

the Church above and the Church below,

Abraham and Sarah, Miriam and Moses

are here,

Amos and Jeremiah, Simeon and Anna,

Peter and Paul, Martha and all the Marys,

Stephen and Perpetua, Bonhoeffer and

Romero,

Francis of Assisi and Hildegard of Bingen,

Martin Luther King and Mother Theresa,

saints from far back

and those who left not long ago,

Only sight prevents our seeing them.

here at your table.

And so, we join in the unending hymn of
praise:

Holy, holy, holy Lord,

God of power and might,

heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

CORPORATE PRAYER

from the New Zealand Book of Prayer

Eternal Spirit,

Earth-maker, Pain bearer, Life-giver,

Source of all that is and that shall be,

Father and Mother of us all,

Loving God, in whom is heaven:

May the hallowing of your name echo
through the universe;

The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world;

Your heavenly will be done by all created
beings;

Your commonwealth of peace and freedom

sustain our hope and come on earth.

With the bread we need for today, feed us.

In the hurts we absorb from one another,
forgive us.

In times of temptation and test,
strengthen us.

From trial too great to endure, spare us.

From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

For you reign in the glory of the power

that is love,

now and forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY

Consolation #4

by F. Liszt

DOXOLOGY

Through all our living, we our fruits must give.

Good works of service are for offering.

When we are giving, or when receiving,

We belong to God. We belong to God.

We belong to God. We belong to God.
