When you talk,
you are only repeating what you already know. But if you listen, you may learn something new.

CALL TO WORSHIP

When we look at the world around us, we are often troubled and frustrated by the prevalence of evil and oppression – and poverty and injustice. It seems that our work to the contrary is for naught.

Throughout history, people have longed for divine intervention and a convincing, mighty victory of right over wrong. Jesus, however, pointed us in quite a different direction.

As Jesus and so many others have shown, instead of looking for divine intervention, we should look to ourselves. May we attune our senses to what is often overlooked.

May we pay attention to each moment, notice that which is present, treat the commonplace as important, and respond to the calling to love without limit.

OPENING HYMN

#749 “We are Called”

PASSING OF THE PEACE

May the Peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Please offer to each other a sign of peace.

Give Me Jesus by Jeremy Camp

Gratitude by Brandon Lake

Sovereign by Chris Tomlin

(Washing Hands)

Members are encouraged to walk toward one of four hand washing stations in the sanctuary. Please extend your hands over the basin to be “washed” – we do this as a sign of our Southminster covenant to mission and service. When hands are washed, youth will say “We fully rely on God” – please respond by saying “to be the hands of justice”.

After completing the Hand Washing, please make your way to form a circle around the sanctuary as we sing our final hymn.

CLOSING HYMN

#300 We Are One in the Spirit

They'll Know We Are Christians by Our Love

BENEDICTION AND SENDING FORTH

“Be the change you wish to see in the world.”
— Mahatma Gandhi

POSTLUDE

There Is A Fountain
