PAUSE FOR REFLECTION

"Remember: the time you feel lonely is the time you most need to be by yourself. Life's cruelest irony." — Douglas Coupland

GREEK TESTAMENT READING

Matthew 28:16-20

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus told them to go. When they saw him, they worshiped him, but some doubted. Jesus came near and spoke to them, "I've received all authority in heaven and on earth. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything that I've commanded you. Look, I myself will be with you every day until the end of this present age."

THEME READING

"Let me tell you this: if you meet a loner, no matter what they tell you, it's not because they enjoy solitude. It's because they have tried to blend into the world before, and people continue to disappoint them."

— Jodi Picoult, My Sister's Keeper

DOXOLOGY

Through all our living, we our fruits must give.
Good works of service are for offering.
When we are giving, or when receiving,
We belong to God.
We belong to God.
We belong to God.
We belong to God.

SERVICE OF COMMUNION

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Blessed are you, God of time and space.
Heaven is here and earth, too,
and the space between them, thin.
Here are those bound by time
and those blessed by eternity,
the Church above and the Church below,
Abraham and Sarah, Miriam and Moses are here,
Amos and Jeremiah, Simeon and Anna,
Peter and Paul, Martha and all the Marys,
Stephen and Perpetua, Bonhoeffer and Romero,
Francis of Assisi and Hildegard of Bingen,
Martin Luther King and Mother Theresa, saints from far back
and those who left not long ago,
Only sight prevents our seeing them.
here at your table.

Heaven is here, and earth, and you, great God,
who made them!
And so, we join in the unending hymn of praise:
Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
