WORD OF GRACE

(From “The Black Family Pledge” by Maya Angelou)

We pledge to bind ourselves to one another, to embrace our lowliest, to keep company with our loneliest, to educate our illiterate, to feed our starving, to clothe our ragged, to do all good things, knowing that we are more than keepers of our brothers and sisters.

We ARE our brothers and sisters.

CALL TO WORSHIP *

To see the life that teems around us,

To give thanks for the gift we have received;

To notice the beauty and promise of spring,

To breathe deeply of the season;

To accept the gift of love, and to love in return:

This is to worship God.

PASSING THE PEACE *

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Let us offer signs and words of Christ's peace to one another.

SCRIPTURE READING

Acts 2:1-21 (The Message)

When the Feast of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Without warning, there was a sound like a strong wind, gale force—no one could tell where it came from. It filled the whole building. Then, like a wildfire, the Holy Spirit spread through their ranks, and they started speaking in a number of different languages as the Spirit prompted them. There were many Jews staying in Jerusalem just then, devout pilgrims from all over the world. When they heard the sound, they came on the run.

Then when they heard, one after another, their own mother tongues being spoken, they were blown away. They couldn't for the life of them figure out what was going on, and kept saying, “Aren't these all Galileans? How come we're hearing them talk in our various mother tongues?”

Parthians, Medes, and Elamites;

Visitors from Mesopotamia, Judea and Pamphylia,

Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene;

Immigrants from Rome, both Jews and proselytes;

Even Cretans and Arabs!

They're speaking our languages, describing God's mighty works!”

Their heads were spinning; they couldn't make head or tail of any of it.

They talked back and forth, confused:

Others joked, “They're drunk on cheap wine.”

That's when Peter stood up and, backed by the other eleven, spoke out with bold urgency:

“Fellow Jews, all of you who are visiting Jerusalem, listen carefully and get this story straight. These people aren't drunk as some of you suspect.

They haven't had time to get drunk — it's only nine o'clock in the morning.

Acts 2:1-21 (The Message)

This is what the prophet Joel announced would happen: “In the Last Days,” God says, “I will pour out my spirit on every kind of people:

Your sons will prophesy, also your daughters;

Your young will see visions, your old will dream dreams.

When the time comes,

I'll pour out my Spirit

on those who serve me

men, women, nonbinary all, and they'll prophesy.

I'll set wonders in the sky above

and signs on the earth below,

Blood and fire and billowing smoke,

the sun turning black and the moon blood-red,

Before the Day of the Lord arrives,

the Day tremendous and marvelous;

And whoever calls out for help to me, will be saved.”

COMMUNITY PRAYERS

#281 Holy Spirit, Come to Us

Veni Sancte Spiritus

THE LORD'S PRAYER

From Mark Berry

(Emerging Church Movement)

O Breathing Life,

your Name shines everywhere!

Release a space

to plant your presence here.

Imagine your possibilities now.

Embody your desire

in every light and form.

Grow through us

this moment's bread and wisdom.

Untie the knots of failure binding us,

as we release

the strands we hold of others' faults.

Help us not forget our Source,

Yet free us from

not being in the Present.

From you arises every Vision,

Power and Song

from gathering to gathering.

Amen.
