WORD OF GRACE
I never saw a moor-
I never saw the sea-
Yet know I how the heather looks
And what a wave must be.
I never spoke with God
Nor visited in heaven-
Yet certain am I of the spot
As if a chart were given.

- Emily Dickinson

SCRIPTURE READING
Psalm 90:1-6, 12
YHWH, you have been our refuge from one generation to the next.
Before the mountains were born, you brought forth the earth and the world; you are God without beginning or end.
You turn humankind back into dust and say: "Go back, creatures of the earth!"
For in your sight a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, no more than a watch in the night.
You sweep us away like a dream, fleeting as the grass that springs up in the morning—in the morning it sprouts, but by evening it has withered and died.
Make us realize how short life is so that we may gain wisdom of heart.
